

IMAGES DRAW YOU IN

UNDERSTANDING GOAL: Patterns help us to understand our world.

INVESTIGATIVE QUESTION: How can we see change over time?

PRODUCT: As a class, think and be ready to discuss your answer to the Investigative Question.

Matlack, C.C. (1925-1929). Photographs depicting mangroves in the Everglades, 1925-1929. Library of Congress: American Memory, Reclaiming the Everglades: South Florida's Natural History, 1884-1934

Unknown. (n.d.). Timber operations, Skykomish, Washington. Library of Congress: American Memory, American Environmental Photographs, 1891-1936: Images from the University of Chicago Library

STUDENT ACTION(S): (Claim/Support/Question)

1. Make a claim about the source.
2. Identify things you see, feel, and know that support your claim.
2. Ask a question related to your claim.

CONNECTION: How does your answer connect to the UNDERSTANDING GOAL?