

Roaring Twenties Scavenger Hunt – Step One

Work from the Investigation Page of the 1920s WebQuest to find the missing information below! You will need this information to complete your word scramble.

-
1. This architect roared by designing more than 800 buildings, 380 of which were actually built.
 2. This painter roared in his hometown of Florence, SC, in Harlem, and even in Europe.
 3. The creator of the famous painting Bella Donna was born on a farm in Sun Prairie, Wisconsin.
 4. This president shared a name with a vacuum cleaner and would be 130 years old if he were alive today.
 5. This adventurous woman roared across the ocean as the first female airplane passenger AND the first female pilot!
-
6. Audiences roared with amazement at the stunts this master of illusion pulled. By the way, he first roared as a baby either in Hungary or Wisconsin.
 7. Although he ended up an actor, he roared through Columbia Law School by playing for the National Football League.
 8. Can poetry roar? This man made it happen with poems like The Ballad of Booker T. and The Negro Speaks of Rivers.
 9. Before he began writing plays, he worked as a gold prospector!

10. This singer famous for “scat jive” roared often at the Cotton Club.
11. These brothers roared through the decade writing songs and musicals.
12. Without his first phonograph recording of Mary Had a Little Lamb, Destiny’s Child and No Doubt would be out of luck.
13. They believed it was possible for humans to fly, and proved it when they roared off a dune in Kitty Hawk, North Carolina.
14. Although he was born on a farm in Michigan during the Civil War, this entrepreneur’s name still roars down the roads today.
15. The crowd roared when he hit his 4,000th career hit on July 18, 1927.

