

Making Sense of Letters

1. Circle the date the letter was written.
2. Underline any words you don't recognize or can't read.
3. Reading what you can in the letter, go back and write in words that you think make sense for some of the words that you underlined.
4. Choose one sentence from the letter and rewrite it here:

<hr/> <hr/> <hr/>

5. What do you think this letter is about?
6. After reading the printed version of this letter or listening to a reading of this letter, what new information do you have about the letter?
7. How accurate was the sentence you wrote out?
8. What questions do you have about this letter?
9. How could you go about getting answers to the questions you wrote above?